GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

FOLLOWERS OF JOCKEY MILLER MEET WITH REVERSES.

After Handling One Winner Crack Elder Is Beaten Three Times—Angler's Fifth Straight Victory-How the Layers Fare-Steeplechase Winner Bid Up.

"Play Miller!" That was the slogan heard es the dig crowd of racegoers poured through the gates of the Brighton track yesterday. ller's remarkable riding on Saturday, when Miller's remarkable riding on Saturday, when be handled five straight winners, had set racegoers on edge, and a majority of them were ready to back the popular midget's mounts, no matter what the form of the horse might be. The public's confidence in Miller had developed into a craze. It was generally believed that the jockey could win on almost anything, and as he leaves for Saratoga today, it was contended that he was due for another clean sweep. Miller had the leg up on O. W. Deppeler's Pythia in the first race. In her previous race Pythia had been ridden by Coleman, a green apprentice, so that the change to Miller made her look like a cinch. The books laid 7 to 5 against Pythia and the swarm of Millerites backed her for all kinds of money. When Miller, therefore, came home in triumph, he was greeted with wild cheers, followed by a Willer rush, pelimell into the ring to cash. did not have another mount until the fourth race, the Glen Cove Handicap, in which he rode the Newcastle Stable's Inquisitor, a 2 to 1 favorite "Play Miller!" was the slogan still, and hundreds staggered the bookmakers in frantic forts to get their money down on the son of Inspector B.

'Here's Miller, Miller! Eleven to five againt Miller!" shouted many layers who were hungry for the big play. This hunch in the price only caused the Miller pocketbooks to open wider until the prices was beaten down again to 2. But this time Miller did not win because Inquisitor could not overhaul the lightweighted Consistent.
In the fifth race Miller had the leg up on Lord Badge. While Miller's followers did not believe that the old campaigner could win, ey were ready to play him place and show.

"Here's Miller, 4 to 5, third!" sang out the chalkers, who were still after the fanatical coin. It went down in chunks and Lord Badge came in last. Nothing daunted, how-ever, the Millerites prepared to unbelt on Soprano in the last race. The filly, with the popular jockey in the saddle, was regarded as the smart thing of the day. So she was pounded down to 4 to 5 and then the crowd went up in the grand stand to give Miller the promised ovation. But when Soprano backed up in spite of the midget's hard riding there was a howl of rage, which lasted until long after the numbers had been hoisted. "Miller handed us some lemons to-day, sure enough," was the comment of the misguided ones who went home inclined to be-lieve that Miller, while a fine rider, is not invincible always when handling inferior horses. With yesterday's success J. D. Odom's Angler has won five straight races. He handled 112 pounds in the handicap in clever style, giving two pounds to Agile, backed down to 5 and a bad horse; eighteen to Corrigan, who was cut loose in earnest at juicy gdds; twenty to Lord Badge and twenty-five to Sailor Boy, at the same time being in receipt of three pounds from Coy Maid. When the books quoted 7 to 5 against Angler, the big operators lost no time in backing him practically off the boards. He won so easily that it seemed a shame to take the money. Angler has proved a consistent bread winner for his owner, who is not in possession of more than an ordinary share of wealth.

When the horses came out of the paddock for the first race A. S. Snyder's Ruby Star, a filly by Star Ruby, acted so badly that the railbirds advised P. Walsh, a green jockey, to jump off. The filly backed up to the judges' stand, where several men threw pebbles at her flanks in a fruitless attempt to make her go the other way. The jockey looked helpessly at the stewards, but they showed no sign of sympathy. Then Ruby Star suddenly concluded to run and she went off to the, post like a whirlwind. She did not break when the gate went op and the stewards refused her entry until she has been properly schooled. Incidentally the stewards fined Jockey Her-

Gates to the post in the third race.

The steeplechase was a selling affair which T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s Tom Cogan was entered to be sold for $800. He was promptly bid up to $1,600 by C. C. Smithson, owner of Bound Brook, the second horse, and was re-tained with an extra $5. Then Tom Cogan was sold privately to James Blute, the price not being made public.

William Du Bois, the well known club-house commissioner, left yesterday for Saratoga for his usual week's layoff prior to re-suming business at the Spa next Monday. It was said yesterday that Aleck Shields had been unable to secure stable room at Saratoga until after his thirty days suspension had expired. Whether Shields has been discriminated against or not cannot be said, but it was generally believed that the unusual demand for stalls was the chief cause for his failure to get room. Shields's Go Between under the Jockey Club's ruling cannot start in the Saratoga Handicap on Monday.

Previous winners of the Glen Cove Handicap were Lackland, Motley, The Musketeer Numeral, Astarita, Lady Amelia and Banker. Dave Johnson, who has been getting into his stride lately, had big bets on Pythia, Fountain Blue and Angler yesterday. He will go to Saratoga well heeled for another assault on the bookmakers.

The heavy gale which blew in from the ocean yesterday blew down the large canvas screen stretched along the backstretch in front of a house in which the poolroom men have been doing business all through the meeting. On the roof of this building were several agents yesterday who had an excellent view of the races, a description of which was wired all over the country. The Pinkertons have been siccessful in shutting off information at all of the other tracks, but at Brighton they hav been apparently up against it.

Starter Dade's assistants have dispensed with the bull whip, at a suggestion from the

If Kilkare had won the first race yesterday R. G. Tower and J. H. McAvoy would have pulled off a killing. The tip was sent West Saturday night and it was well played, it i said, in the poolrooms three ways. was. Killkare was played across the board in the ring, the layers losing heavily to this race, as Pythia carried a ton of money, while Sufficiency was played largely to show. Bribery, Mollie Donohue, Miss Ogden and were all supposed good things in

The books broke more than even on the second race, as Tom Cogan and Bound Brook were both liberally backed straight and place. while much wealth was dropped on Flying Virginian and Python. Patagonian was a magnet for considerable show money.

The result of the third race was a vicious blow for the pencillers. Fountain Blue was backed off the boards. Yowric was taken two ways and Laura A. was backed princi-pally third. But the Glen Cove Handicap was a lifesaver, as all kinds of coin were dropped on the three choices, Inquisitor, King's Daughter and La Sorciere. Consistent was a good thing for the handicappers and others who anticipated the sudden form reversal of the Galore filly. It was said before the race that C. E. Rowe had unlimited confidence in La Sorcière because of a fast workout. Accordingly the colt was backed from 5 down to 2, only to go back again to 7 to 2. But it was learned afterward that Rowe himself did not bet a penny.

The plungers sent it in on Angler in the handleap until many of the books rubbed entirely. The victory of the Hindoe horse was another sockdolager for the books, in spite of the support accorded to Coy Maid, Agile and Lord Badge. The last race, however, we are nealer to windward for the ever, was an ancher to windward for the ring, as a fortune was wagered on Soprano to win, while Revenue carried a world of place money. Dulcines, the winner, went up in the odds, while Suada was backed three ways.

SEVENTY-FIRST'S CLEAN SWEEP. Col. Bates's Ridemen Add Old Guard Trophy to Their Prizes.

CREEDMOOR, July 30 .- The Seventy-first Regiment duplicated last year's performance by winning the Old Guard trophy this afternoon and for the second consecutive year making a clean sweep of the team matches n the New York State Rifle Association meeting. This year they won the silver punch bowl of the Old Guard with consummate ease. The navy captured second and third places. Lieut. Laning's two blue jacket teams tying at 242, 12 points astern of the Seventy-first. The second string of the navy won the fight for second, however, as the first string team had an inglorious miss in its board. The marines made a spurt with their last pair and beat the Italian team for fourth.

Eight teams lined up for their ten shots per man at 200 yards promptly upon the com-pletion of the final stage of the Thurston long range match, won by W. G. Hudson of the Manhattan Rifle and Revolver Association. Unlike the last two years the sSeventh and Twelfth regiments failed to enter. The scores made by the leading pairs opened the eyes of the gallery that there was something amiss in the conditions. A strong, puffy rear wind made holding at the bottom of the ball ticklish work and few of the riflemen were able to keep in the four ring for their string, the black and white three disk being shown frequently.

The six old reliables of Col. Bates's outfit, however, shot more consistently and, at times, brilliantly, and soon had a firm grip on the trophy. Wells nailed it down with a 46, Seaman Kethley of the Navy's first team and Private De Loach of the Marines tying with 44 for second individual honors. The Italian team shot strongly at the start, but blew up team shot strongly at the start, but blew up in the middle of its board. The Seventy-first's second string found the conditions bothersome and finished sixth. Col. Bates of the Seventy-first, Col. J. W. Ewing of the Delaware Guard and Lieut. A. S. Jones, secretary of the N. R. A., were interested followers of the match. Summary:

The Thurston match for the gold medal offered by Col. N. B. Thurston was one of the most interesting individual matches shot for in a long time on the range. An unusually large field of forty-seven began at 800 yards, at 10 o'clock in the morning. The conditions called for three strings of seven-shots at 800 and 900 yards, the two best strings to count. The conditions were difficult enough to make the cracks exert themselves to the limit. The light alternated from dull to bright, the mirage ran strongly at times and the range flags whipped from right to left in the rear wind. Hudson took the lead at 900, with two perfect scores of 35 each, running eighteen traight bulls, fully fifteen in the bull at 7 o'clock. Tobin and four of the Seventy-first cracks. Doyle, Corwin, Ranney and Wells, were well up. At the 900 yard stage Hudson spoiled an embryo possible with a three on the final shot. The cracks were better bunched at the longer range, but Hudson's lead was too great. Col. Thurston shot a string himself to pull a target for the Forty-seventh man and kept the bull's eye and its immediate vicinity warm.

BEATS INQUISITOR AND KING'S DAUGHTER WITH EASE.

Angler, Hot Favorite. Scores at a Mile and a Quarter-Fountain Blue Breezes Home-Three Favorites Reward the Talent's Loyalty at the Brighton Track.

T.-L. Watt's Consistent, played down to 7, von the Glen Cove Handicap for three-yearolds, six furlongs, at Brighton yesterday. She had a pull in the weights, Inquisitor, the favorite, conceding twenty-four pounds to her. At the start Notter took Consistent out or a heartbreaking struggle with King's Daughter, the top weight, who went back in the betting to 18 to 5. King's Daughter quit at half a mile, after which Consistent vent on and breezed home three lengths in front of Inquisitor in 1:13. Inquisitor had five lengths over King's Daughter, the latter beating Belle of Pequest, 10 to 1, by a head.

Angler, who had won four consecutive races, was a successful favorite in the fifth went, a handicap at a mile and a quarter.

He carried top weight, but was hammered down to 9 to 10. H. E. Rowell's Corrigan, 15 to 1, made the running, attended by Coy Maid, 7 to 2, for nearly a mile. Angler then joined them, and the trio raced head and head until the homestretch was reached, where Angler drew away and won eased up by a length in 2:05 2-5. Corrigan beat Coy Maid with a margin of four lengths for the place. The first race, a six furlong dash, for threeyear-old fillies, was a struggle between Pythia, 7 to 5 favorite, and Killkare, a 20 to 1 shot.

Miller put up a clever ride on Pythia, who won by a length in 1:13 4-5, with Killkare beating Sufficiency, 20 to 1, by a couple of lengths. Banner, 10 to 1, was a length out of the money.

T. Hitchcock's Tom Cogan, 7 to 2 second choice, captured the steeplechase, over the run home by Bound Brook, 11 to 5 favorite, the latter's rider, Terry, receiving a repri-mand from the stewards. J. E. Widener's the latter's rider, Terry, receiving a reprimand from the stewards. J. E. Widener's Patagonian, 8 to 1, was a poor third. Mr. Cotton's Flying Virginian, 7 to 2, fell on the back stretch, burning up a lot of money. The time was 4:26.

F. A. Forsythe's Fountain Blue, one of the best colts in training, made a show of his field in the third event, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs. He was a heavily played odds on favorite at 4 to 5. Lyne broke him off in front and the colt just galloped all the way to the wire, where he had eight lengths to spare, in 1:06 2-5. W. Gerst's Yowric, 8 to 5, ran second all the way, fnishing a length and a half before Laura A., 12 to 1.

A. L. Aste's Soprano, odds on favorite in the last race, for maiden two-year-old fillies and geldings, five and a half furlongs, was run off her feet in the first half mile by W. I. Powers's Revenue, 4 to 1. The latter, who had a good lead as she turned into the stretch, backed up in the last furlong. Dulcinea, 6 to 1, owned by R. H. McCarter Potter, then closed with a rush and took the race by a length in a drive from G. C. Bennett's Suada, 7 to 1, with Revenue a length and a half back. The time was 1:98. Three favorites won and the attendance was 12,000. The summaries:

weed Final.

Boston, July 30.—W. J. Clothier was outplayed and outgeneralled at all times to-day and Karl Behr of the Crescent A. C. won the final in the Longwood tennis singles, in straight sets, 6-1, 5-6, 5-4, before a large crowd. Behr's playing was a revelation and he is looked upon as standing a very fair chance to defeat W. A. Larned, the holder of the Longwood challenge cup for 1905, whom he meets to-merrow afternoon. Behr moth up Clethier's game completely, and there was hardly a doubt as to the result of the match after the first set. Behr placed his shots with great accuracy and did not give Clothier a chance to play his net game, for which he is noted.

ANN DIRECT'S M. & M. Myron McHenry's Great Driving Respon

ble for Victory in Big Race. CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 30.—Ann Direct, the five-year-old daughter of Direct, masterly driven by Myron McHenry, captured the rich Merchants' and Manufacturers' $10,000 stake for 2:24 trotters this afternoon by winning the second and third heats. This classic event was not won without struggle, and it was only by his ability to get the limit out of the little mare that McHenry won. Jack Curry with Brilliant Girl captured the first heat, and the trick was turned so easily that it was thought she would win quite handily, but in the second heat McHenry with Ann Direct and Brilliant Girl fought it out down in the stretch and in a whipping finish, which brought the 7,000 spectators to their feet, Ann Direct won. In the third and final heat it was a struggle etween Captain Bacon and Ann Direct, and again it was McHenry's driving that saved the day. Tommy Murphy, the Albany trainer, made a great finish with his fouryear-old colt and was only beaten by a head, McHenry lifting Ann Direct's nose under the This was the first day of the grand circuit meeting and an immense crowd turned out with the purpose of seeing sport without the betting adjunct, which is prohibited.

Still pools were sold this morning in a nearby town and Ann Direct was the favorite in the pools, with Kenneth Mac a close second for the M. and M. Eudora was the favorite for the 2:08 pace, with the winner, Hal C., bringing $5. Mainsheet, the winner of the 2:08 trot, got his first beating of the year when he lost the third heat to Turley, Geers outdriving Al Thomas.

Hazel Bank was the favorite for the last race, at even money against the field, but was lame and had to be drawn at the end of the third heat. Rudy Kip, driven by Murphy, won in straight heats and incidentally pacing the fastest heat of the day in the first heat.

The track was heavy, while the wind was troublesome to the horses on the stretch. The racing was of the best, each heat being a race. Summaries:

GOLF. Four Ball Match at Roseville -Scores at

Van Cortlandt. There was a fine four ball match at the Boseville Golf Club yesterday between the Montclair amateurs, Jerome Travers, who last week established the Roseville record of 74, and Morris Whitlatch, and Thomson, the pro, and S. H. Lockett, the Roseville amateur. The home pair were 1 up in the morning and finished 2 up for the match. In the afternoon both Thomson and Travers had individual cards of 75. Thomson twice had the 140 yard hole in 2 and Travers once. The play is up hill and it is a hard green to hold. Thomson, an old North Berwick player, was at his best throughout and the match was virtually a duel between him and Travers.

The visitors took the first hole in 5, but Thomson's 2 evened the match at the fourth. The Roseville pair got the fifth in 4, but a 3 on the home hole evened up matters again, the rooms hole are not a superior of the first home. A pair of 4s made Montclair 2 up to start the second nine, but they took 7 on the sixth and Thomson's 3 won the eighth. Travers took 3 puts on the ninth and Whitlatch overapproached, hose ville getting a 3. The Roseville score was 38 and Montclair's 40, for respectively 74 and 76. Starting with 4,432, Roscville's champions were 4 up to begin the afternoon play. It was now an uphill fight for the visitors. Added entries for the professional tournament to-day and to-morrow at Van Cortlandt Park include Aleck Campbell of Boston, Ed. Fitzloha, Willie Dunn, the old time champion; Alex Pirie, Will Hobens, George Kinšman, John Hrett, Harry Simpson, Charles Thom and Joé Mitchell of Cleveland, which brings the total to sixty. Aleck Smith and a host of the entrants played the course yesterday. Martey O'Loughlin went out in 32, scoring 3, 4, 3, 5, 4, 3, 3, 3, 4, but he had three 8c coming in, finishing with 42. Bernard Nicholls and David Oglivie also had 74s. W. D. Robinson, the Atlantic City homebred, and Ed Fitzjohn had 75s. Among other leading scores were 76 by Jack Hutchinson and Donald Ball of the Philadelphia Country Club, 77 by Frank Eastman, 78 by Aleck Campbell of Boston, 79 by Bob Dunlop and G. C. Turnbull and 80 by Isaac Mackie, who won the tournament last year. The first pair will tee up at 9 o'clock this morning.

The golf associations of the world are invited to send teams of four to compete for the Olympic team trophy, at the Glen Echo Country Club, St. Louis, on Monday, September 3. The eighth annual amateur championship will be played on the links the five following days. The team competition will be at thirty-six holes and the members of teams, not members of the W. G. A., may take part in all the cup events except the championship. E. M. Byers is eligible for the championship and also to play for the Western Pennsylvania Golf Association, holders of the Olympic trophy. The team entries close with A. R. Gates, secretary of the W. G. A., 100 Washington street, Chicago.

Newport Cottagers in Tennis Tourney. NEWPORT, July 30.—The mixed doubles tennis tournament in which the contestants are members of the cottage collony was started this morning on the Casino courts, but the re was but one match played, one of the players in the other falling and spraining the players in the other falling and spraining his ankle. This was Harold Sands, who was playing with Miss Irene Sherman. The courts were so damp to-day that it was necessary to play on the dirt court, which did not make the matches as interesting. The final will be played to-morrow between Willing Spencer and Miss Edna Barger, who will have as their opponents W. P. Burden and Miss Busk.

The result of the play to-day was as follows:

Mared Doubles, Casino Cups—Willing Spencer and Miss Edna Barger beat Harold Sands and Miss Irene Sherman by default: William P. Burden and Miss Margaret Rusk beat Craig Biddle and Mrs. Barger Wallach, 6—8, 7—5, 6—4.

Versattle Stick Work and Reliable Fielding -New York's Winning Score Same as Brooklyn's Losing Score-Clean Sweep for the Chicago Cubs in Boston.

The New Yorks defeated the Cincinnatis to 1 yesterday, and the Brooklyns lost by the same score to St. Louis. It was the fifth straight victory for the New Yorks and the fourth straight from the Reds, who made only three runs in the four games. As be-tween the New Yorks and Cincinnatis, the former now have won twelve games, giving them the majority of the season's series. The Chicagos made it four straight in Boston.

him, and the fact that he had to throw when out of position did not make the plays any easier.

However, the good plays of the Reds were only occasional, while the New Yorks were consistently capable. Huggins had the assurance to bunt on a third strike in the first inning, and he bunted safely; but nothing followed to help him any. Bresnahan was safe on Corcoran's low throw in the first and scored on Browne's sacrifice, Shannon's scratch hit and Seymour's safety to right. Mathewson made the first of three hits in the second inning and roamed around on a base on balls. Browne's infield hit and Shannon's out. Delehanty had Browne's hit in Kelley's hands a foot ahead of the runner, but Emslie's judgment was askew and he gave Browne safe.

The third inning killed off the Reds. Devlin hit safely to short. Dahlen was doused. Huggins to Kelley, and after Devlin had stolen third he was thrown out at the plate on Gilbert's grasser to Corcoran. Mathewson lined a single to left. Bresnahan hit to Corcoran, who made a bad throw to second. Gilbert scoring. Browne's two bagger was relayed in by Jude and Kelley and then muffed by Livingston. It was no half way job that Livingston made of his misplay, Mathewson, Bresnahan and Browne trooping home.

New York's three runs in the seventh inning were due to hard, clean hitting. Ieviin, Dahlen, Gilbert and Ferguson made the hits. Ferguson was minus control when he first went in the box, and two bases on balls and a two bagger put three Reds on bases, with nobody out. Ferguson struck out two of the following batsmen, while Siegle came in on Huggins's out from Bowerman to Ferguson. On account of the poor light the game was curtalled one inning. The score.

Jake Beckley was out of yesterday's game in Brooklyn with a bad prop. Doc Marshall went behind the bat with a sore finger in order that Grady might play first, and a new-comer was at short for the Cardinals; but these things to the contrary not withstanding, St. Louis won from the home team easily. The new shortstop, Crawford, did all right at the bat and in the field, and so did his associates. The main difference—that is the factor that told the tale—was in the pitching. Eason was riddled; Karger was a cunning craftsman. The Cardinals bunched their hits and punctuated their railies with just enough long distance hits to make the most of their scoring seances. Phil Lewis played a good all around game for the Brooklyns.

It is a stern chase that the Philadelphias It is a stern chase that the Philadelphias are making for the New Yorks in the race for first place. The hilltoppers beat the Clevelands again yesterday, but the leaders also beat the Detroits again. It was the sixth consecutive victory for the New Yorks. The two victories in Cleveland go to show that Griffith is well provided with reserve material, the enforced absence of Chase not stopping the team's winning streak. CLEVELAND, July 30.—Elberfeld's two wide throws and the fear of a collision between Hoffman, Williams and the shortstop in the third inning saved the Naps Irom a shutout to-day in the second battle with the New Yorks. The score was 6 to 4. tallying with that of Saturday. Orth pitched good ball and deserved better results. Laporte's fielding and batting were a feature.

Hess singled in the third inning and raced to third when Elberfeld, Williams and Hoffman allowed Flick's easy fly to fall attuong them. He scored on Jackson's out. The big pitcher again singled in the sixth, was sacrificed to second, went to third on an out and scored when Elberfeld threw Turner's grounder wild to Moriarity. Lajole followed with a double that scored the "cotton top." Elberfeld threw wide in the ninth when Bossman grounded to him. Congalton's hit and Barbeau's out advanced him to third, whence he counted on Stovall's out.

Hess had the visitors at his mercy until the fourth inning. Then, with two gone, Laporte doubled and scored on Williams's hit for two bases. New York failed to score in the fifth, although they got three hits. With two out, Orth and Conroy singled and Keeler bunted safely, but Fberfeld sent an easy fly to Jackson. Laporte doubled again in the sixth, reached third when Barbeau dropped the ball, relaved from centre, and came in on Williams's hit. Kleinow's single in the seventh, Orth's sacrifice that went safe when Hess fumbled the ball, and Keeler's triple netted two runs. Laporte's single scored Keeler. Hoffman proved a whirlwind on bases. He singled in the eighth, purloined second and third and crossed the plate on Kleinow's hit. The score:
